NUM. 816

Nº 824.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Recd. of a Letter from the Island of Vaches, on the Coast of St. Domingo in the West Indies, dated the 3th of October last.

On the 9th ult. about 4 and 5 o'clock in the Evening, one of the most dreadful Hurricanes happened in these Parts that was ever remember'd. It was felt chiefly towards Aquin, St. Lewis, Cavallton, the Negroes Fort, and the Great Haziers. The Town of St. Lewis was intirely demolish'd, except the Church and a couple of Houses. Those of the Port St. Lewis were intirely overturn'd. The Ships that were moor'd under the Fort were forc'd ashore, or drove upon their Anchors, and several Persons drown'd. All the Canes and Corn Trees are thrown down, and the Roads every where so full of Trees blown down by the Wind, that the Tracks of them are scarce to be seen: In short, there are scarce any Houses in those Parts left standing, tho' 'tis true, that they were most of them no better than Cottages. The greatest Proof of the Tempest, and the Force of the Wind, is, that several of the Cannon at Fort St. Lewis are now'd out of their Places. We hear that the same Hurricane has also been severely felt in the Windward Islands. The Master of a Vessel arriv'd from St. Eustachia says, that as he came off he saw about 20 Boats cast away; that the said Town is almost intirely destroy'd, and all the Country ruin'd. The bad Weather still continues, and 'tis the more terrible, not only by reason of the excessive Rain, but on account of the Thunder which has fallen in several Places, and set Fire to several Ships and Magazines. The Letters from Torbec, mention the Death of an Inhabitant of that Canton, one Father Hilary, a Lorainer by Descent, who liv'd to be 117 Years old. He was Guardian of the Marshal de Hamieres, in the Reign of Lewis XIII.

A Letter of the 24th of Dec. O. S. from Constantinople confirms, that Abdallah-Bacha the Grand Visier, who commanded at the Siege of Oczakow, is deposed and made Governor of Negropont, and that the Kaimacan of Constantinople is made Grand Visier in his room, with whom the French, English and Dutch Ministers, hold frequent Conferences for restoring a Peace between the Turks, the Russians, and the Emperor; but the Grand Seigneur does not yet seem dispos'd to hearken to the Proposals made to him by the Courts of Vienna and Petersburg. Mean time the Ministry is very uneasy at the Murmurs of the People, for the Misconduct of the Siege of Oczakow; and besides they have Advice, that one Kemeth taking Advantage of the Absence of the Troops sent for from Asia, has rais'd a Rebellion there of 10,000 Men, and 'tis supposed he will be back'd by a certain Foreign Power, in case the War continues: Upon this 'tis added, that a Divan was held, wherein 'twas resolv'd to send some Troops thither out of hand to crush the Rebellion in its Infancy.

Letters of the 5th Instant, O. S. from Frackfort say, that the Deputies of the Magistrates of that City, set out that Day for Darmstadt, to congratulate the Landgrave of that Name on the 50th Anniversary of his Accession to his Regency, and that his most Serene Highness made a magnificent Entry the same Day into Darmstadt, attended by the Hereditary Prince his Son.

From Milan they write, that last Month one James Corsi, by Trade a Mason, died at Chastelein, a Village near Ceva in Piedmont, who lived to be 118 Years of Age, and said just before his Death, that he did not remember he ever was sick.

Those from Paris, mention the Death of the Abbot Innis, who was formerly Chaplain to the late King James II.

They write from Florence, that the Senate has granted the Grand Duke their Sovereign a Free Gift of 300,000 Ducats.

According to Letters of the 28th ult. from Vienna, the Process against Count Seckendorf is like to be very tedious, especially if it be true, as they give out, that 'tis not yet determined whether they shall proceed against him in a regular Course of Justice, or according to the Martial Laws. Mean time there is a Guard of 12 Men still in his House, commanded by a Captain and inferior Officers.

The freshest Letters from Hungary say, that the 16,000 Turks that came and took Post between Belgrade and Sabatsch are retired, upon Advice that the Imperialists were assembling some Troops to attack them.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Feb. 6. Besides the noted Horse-stealer James Ratcliffe, there have been lately committed to Prison here the following Persons, David Anderson, Indweller in Portsburgh, William Brown, Gardner at Castle-barns, Jean Irvine his Wife, and James Brown their Son, all for harbouring Thieves, and resetting stolen Goods; Robert Buchanan, Indweller at Portsburgh, another of the same; and Mary Mackenzie, Wife to John Rattray alias Farguharson, for Thieving; her Husband is fled, reckoned very criminal that Way. And from Linlithgowshire, John Buchanan, John Robertson alias Stewart, — Stewart his Daughter, and Walter Stewart, all for theifous Practices. And last Saturday the Wife of the above John Buchanan was brought into Prison from Kilmint in Linlithgowshire.

Near 100 Recruits, bound for the Dutch Service, now in Canongate Prison, have lately made several Attempts to break out; but being disappointed, they turned last Friday so mutinous, that four of the Ring-leaders were carried down to a Dungeon below the Guard; which so exasperated the rest, that they seized one of their Officers, and the Turnkey, whom they clapt in close Custody, and barricading the Prison Door, bid Defiance to all Authority; at the same time they intimated, that if their 4 Comrades were not instantly delivered up to them, they'd send the Officer and Jaylor to where the Devil sent his Mother; so that their Demand was of necessity complied with. The Posts round the Prison have been doubled with Centinels; and as they will allow nobody Access to them, so nor one Mouthful of Provisions is suffer'd to be sent in. It was at first propos'd to storm the Garison in Form; but on second Thoughts it carried to starve them into a Surrender. Accordingly yesternight, their Magazines being exhausted, they beat the Chamade, and put out the White Flag: Upon which their Officers, with some of General Whetham's, enter'd into a Capitulation with them; and a general Amnesty (which they insisted on as a Preliminary) being granted, they deliver'd up the Outer Gate to a Sergeant's Command of General Whetham's Regiment, who are now in full Possession of the Place. 'Tis said they threatened, in case of Non-compliance with their Articles, to fall instantly about eating the Turnkey.

We hear from Kircudbright, that on the 26th of last Month died there Capt. Hugh Fullerton of Carleton, in the 84th Year of his Age. He gave early Proofs at Bothwell Bridge of his firm Attachment to those then in Power thro' all their Measures.

IRELAND.

at the Anatomy House and Elaboratory, he was Speech'd by Charles Gardiner, Esq; A. B. from thence to the Philosophy School, and the Oratory School, and lastly to the Library, where he was received with a Speech; then he proceeded through the Fellows Garden to the Provost's House, where he was entertain'd with 2 Courses of 18 Dishes a Course, besides the Desert; her Grace the Dutchesa, Lady Carolina Cavendish, Lady Tullamore, and several others of Quality, dined along with them. There were Tables prepar'd for his Attendants of all Sorts, and the House acted as was worthy of them. The Primate and the Speaker of the Honourable the House of Commons attended him.

Last Night at Mr. Johnson's Ridotto in Crow-street, the greatest Appearance of the Nobility and Gentry were met, that have been seen this Season. The Entertainment was perfectly elegant, and the whole House illuminated with Wax Candles.

We hear that Major Whitney, is promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant Colonel in Brigadier Hawley's Regiment; Captain Obyrian Dilks, to be Major of Colonel Hamilton's; Lieutenant John West, to be Captain in Brigadier Hawley's Dragoons, in the room of Captain Evans; Captain Henry Graham, is made Major in General Dalzell's.

Yesterday Morning died at Legora in the County of Meath, Joseph Bolton, Esq; a Gentleman much lamented on account of his many excellent Qualifications.

The same Day six Officers of the Revenue were try'd at the King's Bench for killing a Man at the Forest, who resisted them in seizing run Goods, and were all found Guilty.

This is to inform the Publick;

THAT I Mary Moore, Daughter of the late Mr. John Moore, Apothecary, (who formerly lived in Abchurch Lane, but of late Years in Lawrenson-Pountney-lane) am remov'd to the Peble and Moor near Lawrence-Pountney-Hill, near Cannon-street, where I shall continue to prepare and sell the following Medicines, having been fully instructed in their true Preparation and Virtues by my late Father Mr. John Moore, viz.

1. The Worm-Medicines, which are allowed to be the most effectual Remedies in the World for destroying Worms, and are proper to be taken by Persons tho' they have no Worms, for they strengthen the Stomach, cause a good Digestion, and require no Confinement.
2. The Antiscorbutick Pills and Spirit, being two Medicines of that transcendent Virtue, that striking at the Root of the Malady, they effect to Admiration the Cure of that Epidemick Disease the Scurvy.
3. Medicines for the Cure of the Cholick, which have prov'd successful when all other Remedies have fail'd.
4. Likewise a Cure for the RHEUMATISM and NEURALGIA.
5. An Elixir which gives Ease in violent Fits of the Stomach.
6. An Ointment that cures the Itch, tho' of long Continuance, without Bleeding or Purging, the Smell of which is no way offensive.
7. Also an Ointment that gives speedy Ease in the Pains.
8. An Elixir for young Children, which helps them to loose their Teeth with Ease, and prevents their having Fevers.
9. And also an excellent Powder for cleansing and preserving the TEETH.

To be had at the said M. Moore's Columbarium, or, The Pigeon-House: being an Introduction to a Natural History of Pigeons, giving an Account of the several Species known in England, with the Method of breeding them, their Distempers and Cures. Note, The Worm-Medicines are sold by my Order (sent up with Direction) by Mrs. Reader, at the Nine Sugar-Loaves in Hungerford-Market; and whoever else offers to sell them, either in Town or Country, you may be assured they are Counterfeits.

For the EYES,

The so-much Fam'd CHYMICAL LIQUOR,

WHICH at once infallibly cures all INFLAMMATION, BLOODSHOT, SORENESS and WEAKNESS of the EYES, Defuxions of sharp Humours dimm'd Sight, Specks, Films, or beginning Cataracts, and that after all other Means have fail'd, and without causing the least Trouble or Uneasiness in using.

It directly heals and cures all Manner of Soreness of the Eyes in Children or grown Persons, tho' of many Years standing, be it either of the dry, itching and smarting Kind, or moist, rheumy or watering, and whether proceeding from the Evil, or any other Distemper.

It effectually takes away all Specks, Films, or incipient Cataracts to Admiration, as also all Films or Gnats, that seem to swim before the Sight; it wonderfully strengthens the Optick Nerves, confirms the Eyes, immediately removes all Dazzling and Dimness, clearing the Sight, and infallibly preserving it strong and good to exceeding old Age.

Hundreds who were to very dim-lighted for some Years, as scarcely able to distinguish anything, and imagin'd their Age to be the Occasion, have been perfectly and almost instantly cured by it, so as to read the smallest Print without Spectacles; and for Ophthalmies, or Sore, Bloodshot, or Rheumy Eyes, no Medicine upon Earth can come near it. Thousands of Men, Women, and Children, have been cur'd by it of the very worst Sort, almost upon the Spot, and Blindness prevented in abundance who had tried all other Remedies in vain, inasmuch that it may be almost accounted a miraculous Remedy.

No Family ought to be without it, nor ever will, after they have had but one Day's Experience of its admirable Efficacy.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment, at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions.
